

Students lose eligibility from participation in extracurricular activities if, after a grade evaluation period, the student receives a grade below 70 in any academic class other than an identified honors or advanced class. Policy FM (Legal) outlines the advanced courses in MISD that are, in effect, exempt from the “no pass, no play” rule. The advanced courses in MISD and recognized by Texas Education Agency defined as exempt from “no pass, no play” guidelines are:

English Language Arts: AP English Language, AP English Literature, dual credit ENGL 1301 and 1302

Fine Arts: AP Studio Art: 2-Design, AP Studio Art: 3-Design, AP Studio Art: Drawing, AP Music Theory, Art IV, Dance IV, Theater IV, and AP Art History

Languages Other Than English: AP Spanish Language, AP Spanish Literature, AP German Language, AP Latin, AP French Language and languages other than English level IV-VII

Mathematics: AP Calculus AB, AP Calculus BC, AP Statistics, Business Calculus, Precalculus, PreAP Precalculus, dual credit math courses

Science: AP Biology, AP Chemistry, AP Physics, AP Environmental Science and dual credit courses

Social Studies: AP World History, AP U.S. History, AP European History, AP Macroeconomics, AP U.S. Government and Politics, AP Psychology, AP Human Geography and dual credit courses ECON 2301, GOVT 2304, HIST 1301 and 1302

Other: AP Computer Science, approved dual credit courses and other advanced placement courses approved by the district

Note: UIL eligibility is based on semesters of participation and not years in high school.
